

Y. W. C. A. PLANS LARGE INCREASE IN MEMBERSHIP

Officers Believe That Hundreds Would Join Organization if They Knew Its Advantages.

The workers of the Young Women's Christian association are busy these days thinking and planning for the needs of girls and young women for the coming year.

The local association has just about reached its childhood days and today stands at the threshold of greater service in every way to the community. In order to serve in the best way possible, the time is not far distant when the association must ask the citizens of Albuquerque for a larger building, fully equipped with swimming pool, gymnasium, rest rooms, recreation rooms, cafeteria, etc., for the better pursuits of life, health and happiness.

The Young Women's Christian association is but one of the many religious and social organizations that in broadening and specializing its work to meet the need of service rendered by the appalling failure, not of Christianity, but of ourselves in failing to teach Christ's plan for the women of our cities.

Membership Emphasized.
Special emphasis is now and more being placed upon the membership and the officers feel that the association must become a democratic, unified force, projecting the life of Christian ideals, Christian service and Christian methods of service into the community. In other words the self-expression of each member is made possible. As yet, the association has not really reached the stage of democracy but each year comes a little nearer to its goal.

Because the membership of the Y. W. C. A. is essentially democratic, its aims and activities are alike and the concern of all the members and the expression of membership is found in the one word "service."

If the young women who are members of the Y. W. C. A. could only realize that as members of the association they may truly help solve some of the social and moral questions that distress them, make the city they live in better socially and morally, they and many more would joyfully take on the responsibility for service that membership involves.

The Young Women's Christian association is organized as a great sisterhood and is more an association than an organization, and the power of the whole movement is its membership. It is the controlling power. As in our United States government, so in the association, the members as a whole vote to give power of control to certain officers they elect.

No Privilege Granted.
Being a member of the Y. W. C. A. does not give privileges or advantages beyond those of the general community. It does give certain rights and obligations which are those of Christian citizenship and common ownership and united working together. It is the membership of an association that makes possible the various departments. Members may extend the privileges of the Y. W. C. A. to non-members for the time being, making available to them the rights which belong to members.

The rights of members are not based on the membership fee, rather the fee is a contribution which each woman makes to the common fund. The women paying one dollar a year has as much responsibility as the woman paying one hundred, also as much rights and privileges. Each has a voice in the electorate or voting of the association when she subscribes to the religious basis of the organization, and every woman and girl, whatever her station in life, has a right in the association membership. This membership implies a spirit of comradeship, as the French express it, of "amitié," it signifies a purpose to stand together in a self-sustaining organization whose ideal is to influence the women of all the community by Christ. The woman who is shy, who is shy, the one who has fears, she who works with her hands, and she who earns her living with her brain, may do many things together and come to realize each something of the others' lives. This life becomes more abundant to us all.

Increased Membership Planned.
The local Y. W. C. A. is planning to increase its membership of two hundred members and it is the earnest wish that all those who are not members will join in the new work and share the pure abundant life with those who are members.

There is some confusion between the two terms "making a life" and "making a living" in these unsettled times of ours. When we come to understand that the object of the association is "to make a life," then the social barriers, if any, will melt away in our admiration for the woman in any group who, as an individual, is the incarnation of a life of service.

The classes for self-development will begin October 1. There probably will be classes in Spanish, English, Bible study, thought exchange and book review, and stenography and typewriting. If there is a demand for it, health study classes and practical talks, and others that may be desired. An interesting Bible study class is being planned. "What We May Believe and Why We May Believe It," and also in studies of Women, Biblical and Modern, taking up woman's opportunity for friendship and privilege in the home, her public influence, her place in industry, etc. These last two will be free to all women and girls and as many more as possible.

The August report of the mission of the association shows a large number of girls helped in all stations of life, proving that the Y. W. C. A. is a friend to not only the girls earning low salaries but also to those not having a penny. The Y. W. C. A. is the most charitable organization but it never turns a woman away and its aim is to give any girl away from home a home-like place to live, acting before her ideals of how to live, the cultured life in body, mind and spirit, making toward greater efficiency in the bringing in of the kingdom of God on earth.

RIFLE CLUB TO BEGIN SHOOT FOR OFFICIAL RATING

Bronze Medals and Additional Rifles for Club Depend Upon Course Which Will Be Started Today.

The Albuquerque Rifle association today will begin firing the course mapped out by the war department for the rating of members. The firing today and for the next several Sundays, until the course is completed, will be more important than the De Paul trophy competition, according to Roy Stamm, president.

Upon this series of shoots not only the rating of members will depend but also the awarding of bronze buttons, furnished by the war department for expert riflemen, sharpshooters and marksmen, the acquisition of additional rifles for the club—the department giving an extra rifle for every member taking an sharpshooter or expert rifleman—and the formation of a club rifle team.

Range for Today.
The club has decided for a team to enter in competition with other teams of the state and outside of the state. The limit for membership has not yet been placed. Eligibility will be determined solely upon the club members' scores. Those making scores above a certain point, yet to be determined, being eligible to enter the team. Any member making the required score at any time may get into the team, taking with him any of the team who fails to keep above this mark will be dropped.

Shooting today will be at the 100 and 300-yard ranges, slow fire. At these ranges each member will be allowed two ranging and ten test shots. If during the three ranges is completed early enough they will shoot at 400 yards, also, slow fire.

DUKE CITY RIFLE CLUB TO FIRE AT OTHER RANGE TODAY.
The Duke City Rifle association also will shoot today. The organization will use the national guard range, about one mile from the 10th street roller line. Rifles and ammunition will be taken to the firing point for members.

Lieutenant Toland, who has been appointed by Adjutant General Herring as officer in charge of the range, has designated every third Sunday as the Duke City club's day at the range. Hereafter the club will fire regularly on that day.

Any one who is interested in rifle shooting or who wishes to learn about the use of government arms will be welcome at the range. Capt. O. A. Hutter, secretary, announced.
